Financial FAQs

What does Tuition include: Phase 2 orientation, independent study homework feedback, and online support in winter 2011-Spring 2012; 6 weeks of Phase 3 training in the Summer of 2012 and 2013, and continued review of homework, and final culminating workshops/internship and supervised teaching experiences of Phase 4.

What other costs are there?

Phase 2 has several other additional costs:

- 10 private sessions in Somatic Movement Therapy with therapists (see Guidelines)
- 30 - 50 hours of outside workshops
- Any additional supervision you desire beyond the $120 provided by MOC-SMTT

For students submitting a transcript of Phase One studies from other schools and still completing Phase One course there is an additional $600 advising fee.

Housing Costs: Numerous weeks of the DE-SMTT program are held in residential retreat centers therefore the cost of housing is separate and even will vary from person to person. In NYC people find rooms with friends or acquaintances, rent apartments together. The housing for 9 - 14 days at Earthdance, a residential dance retreat center in Western MA (www.earthdance.net) is usually between $750 - $975 and includes the cost of food.

Work Exchange/Scholarships/Student Loans: Each year MOC and SMTT fundraise to have some partial scholarships based on both professional promise and financial need. This drive is currently in process. One can also apply for tuition reduction through work exchange. Administrative help in the DE-SMTT NY office can go a long way towards tuition! Most work exchange is usually available before and after the training periods. Only small work exchange awards are available during the training period given the intensity of study. Please contact Martha Eddy if you are interested in long-term work exchange or if have any other questions. Loans can be APPLIED FOR by citizens of the USA if you are a matriculated Graduate Student at Santa Barbara Graduate Institute, International University of Professional Studies, and State University of New York – Empire State College Masters of Arts in Liberal Studies.
